Drew Dillworth is a Shareholder in the Business Restructuring Department and also serves on the Firm’s hiring committee and Board of Directors. He represents parties involved in work-outs, debt restructuring, foreclosure, bankruptcy, insolvency, and related commercial litigation matters. In addition to his legal practice, Mr. Dillworth routinely serves as a court appointed fiduciary in bankruptcy proceedings.

Hal Moorefield, Jr. is a Shareholder and a member of the Firm’s Board of Directors. Mr. Moorefield is the Chair of the Firm’s Business Restructuring Department. His broad-ranging bankruptcy practice specializes in the representation of major creditors and small trustees in bankruptcy and insolvency cases.

Patricia Redmond is a Shareholder in the Business Restructuring Department. Ms. Redmond’s practice focuses on bankruptcy with concentration in creditors’ rights and insolvency counseling in Bankruptcy Court and in out-of-court workouts. She has extensive experience in representation of trustees, creditors’ committees, secured creditors and debtors in Chapter 11 cases. Ms. Redmond lectures locally and nationally on various aspects of bankruptcy, particularly on Chapter 11 issues, and is frequently quoted in The Miami Herald and other business publications.

LABOR & EMPLOYMENT

W. Russell Hamilton, III, is a Shareholder in the Labor and Employment Department. Mr. Hamilton's practice focuses on labor, employment and employee benefits matters, representing exclusively employers, employer associations, and employee benefit plans and fiduciaries.

Robert Kofman is a Shareholder and Co-Chair of the Firm's Labor Law Department. He also serves on the Firm's Board of Directors. Mr. Kofman has extensive experience in representing employers in virtually all areas of the labor and employment law, including defending employment discrimination lawsuits, whistleblower litigation, wage hour compliance and litigation, ERISA litigation, Sarbanes-Oxley litigation, counseling employers on day to day human resources issues, and traditional labor issues involving union organizational campaigns, National Labor Relations Board ("NLRB") proceedings collective bargaining, advising employers during union strikes, and securing injunctions for unlawful mass picketing and secondary boycotts.

Jon Stage is a Shareholder in the Labor and Employment Department. Mr. Stage has litigated and tried a wide variety of employment law claims arising under various aspects of Title VII, the Family and Medical Leave Act, the Fair Labor Standards Act, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act and the Florida Civil Rights Act. Mr. Stage has also litigated and tried cases alleging discrimination in public accommodations and has also counseled clients regarding workplace safety matters arising under the Occupational Safety and Health Act (OSHA). Mr. Stage has also handled numerous matters for management clients seeking to enforce covenants not to compete and regularly advises clients regarding compliance issues with respect to all of the state and federal laws mentioned above.

Robert S. Turk is a Shareholder in the Firm and the Co-Chair of the Labor and Employment Department. He practices in the areas of employment litigation, supervisory training, employment audits, equal employment opportunity claims, affirmative action, wage and hour representation, union avoidance, wrongful discharge, employment and union contracts, trade secrets contracts, non-competition agreements, employment policies, drug-free workplace policies and representation of unionized employers in collective bargaining.

LITIGATION (GENERAL COMMERCIAL)

Alan Fein is a Shareholder in the Litigation Department and a member of the Firm's Board of Directors. Mr. Fein has successfully handled some of South Florida's most important civil jury trials, developed one of the region's few sports law practices, and brought vision to a number of community leadership roles.

Eugene Stearns, a trial lawyer since 1972, serves as Chairman of the Firm's Board of Directors and Chairman of its Litigation Department. His trial experience over three decades has been in jury and non jury trials in federal and state courts in Florida and other jurisdictions (a substantial percentage of which were tried to verdict and final judgment), and extensive arbitration and administrative law proceedings. Mr. Stearns has briefed and argued appeals to Florida's appellate courts including the District Courts of Appeal, the Florida Supreme Court, and in the federal system to the United States Courts of Appeals for the Fifth, Eleventh, Ninth and Third Circuits and he has successfully argued before the United States

Supreme Court in a matter that, when decided, ended almost a decade of disagreement among the federal circuits involving federal diversity jurisdiction.

REAL ESTATE

Chava Genet is a Shareholder in the Real Estate Department and a member of the Firm's Board of Directors. She also serves on the Firm's Hiring Committee. Ms. Genet counsels clients in all aspects of real estate transactions, including the acquisition, sale, leasing and development of office, retail, hotel, and multi-use properties.
