

Stearns Weaver Miller Names Three New Shareholders

MIAMI, FL — September 26, 2017 — Stearns Weaver Miller announced that Jacob T. Cremer from the Firm’s Tampa office and Matthew M. Graham and Jenea M. Reed from the Firm’s Miami office have been promoted to Shareholder.

“Jake, Matt and Jenea are excellent lawyers,” said Managing Director Rick Schatz. “We look forward to their continued success as shareholders.”

Jacob T. Cremer counsels clients in their interactions with local, state, and federal governments on environmental, land use, and land development issues. He has extensive experience securing environmental and land use permits and protecting against challenges, defending government enforcement suits, and litigating property rights issues, including before the United States Supreme Court. Jake routinely assists large landowners on long-term strategic planning for their holdings. He is on the Board of Directors for the Hillsborough County Farm Bureau and is a gubernatorial appointee to the Tampa Bay Regional Planning Council. Jake earned his J.D. and Masters of Science in Planning from Florida State University. View Jake’s full bio.

Matthew M. Graham is a litigator who focuses on bankruptcy cases and complex commercial disputes. He represents a wide variety of clients, including real estate developers, financial institutions, bankruptcy trustees, corporate officers and directors, securities investors, and merchant lenders in state and federal court and in arbitration. He has significant experience litigating cases involving claims for breach of fiduciary duties, director and officer misconduct, commercial torts, and fraudulent transfers. Matt earned his J.D. from the University of Miami School of Law and, before joining the firm, he served as a law clerk in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Florida. Jenea M. Reed handles all facets of complex commercial litigation. She has litigated a variety of high-profile business disputes, including contract and business torts litigation, in state and federal trial and appellate courts. Recently, Jenea was a member of a team that successfully appealed an erroneous judgment and achieved a complete defense verdict in the subsequent retrial. She also serves her community as a mentor with Big Brothers Big Sisters of Miami. Jenea earned her J.D., summa cum laude, from the University of Miami School of Law, and then clerked for Judge Adalberto Jordan of the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit.
