Solutions for Your Business...

A typical workforce may have up to four generations of employees. The newest generation of employees has been raised high-tech. We will discuss the challenges employers may face in addressing a multigenerational workforce and how the digital age affects the hiring, managing and firing of every employee.

Speakers:

Glenn M. Rissman is a Shareholder in the Labor and Employment Department. Mr. Rissman's practice focuses on employment law, immigration, and accessibility. He was selected for inclusion in Florida Trend Magazine "Florida Legal Elite" in 2005, 2006 and 2008. Mr. Rissman has been a member of the Florida Bar since 1991. He earned his J.D., with honors, from the University of Florida and his B.A., magna cum laude, from Duke University.

Tobi Beth Lebowitz is an Associate in the Labor and Employment Department. Ms. Lebowitz's practice focuses on litigation, including discrimination and retaliation under Title VII and the Florida Civil Rights Act, sexual harassment, wage and hour, and whistleblower claims. She earned her J.D., cum laude, and her B.S., with honors, from the University of Florida.
