Labor and Employment Co-Chair Robert T. Kofman Named “Client Service All Star” for 2013

MIAMI — June 13, 2012 —Florida’s law firm, Stearns Weaver Miller Weissler Alhadeff & Sitterson, P.A. announced today that Robert T. Kofman, Shareholder and Co-Chair of the Firm’s Labor and Employment Law Department, has been named a “Client Service All Star” in a report published by BTI Consulting. The designation of “All Star” results from a nomination provided to BTI clients in the course of interviews conducted with general counsel and legal department heads at large businesses across the country. Only 307 lawyers nationally received the designation of ‘All Star’ in 2013 and, of those lawyers, only 28 are labor and employment attorneys.

Nominated by a Fortune 100 bank, Mr. Koffman set himself apart by focusing on providing excellence in client service, having an exceptional understanding of the client’s business, providing outsized value, legal skills and outstanding results, according to the 2013 BTI Client Services All Stars Report.

“Congratulations to Bob on this well deserved recognition,” said Richard Schatz, Stearns Weaver Miller’s managing partner. “At Stearns Weaver we are proud to be recognized for providing exceptional service, business understanding while delivering winning results.”

Mr. Kofman is Board Certified by The Florida Bar in Labor and Employment Law has extensive experience in representing employers in virtually all areas of labor and employment law and has been consistently recognized for his outstanding work, most recently by: Chambers USA, ranking first in Labor and Employment from 2005-2012, by The Best Lawyers in America® from 2005-2012, Florida Super Lawyers, from 2006-2012 among other awards.
