

Bayardo Alemán Named Among University of Florida's Top 40 Under 40 Outstanding Young Alumni

MIAMI, FL — March 6, 2019 — Stearns Weaver Miller Labor and Employment Shareholder Bayardo Alemán was named among the University of Florida's Top 40 Under 40 Outstanding Young Alumni.

Since 2006, the University of Florida Alumni Association has honored young alumni whose achievements positively impact their alumni network. 40 Under 40 continues the tradition of honoring Gators who are doing great work in their communities and professions and will celebrate the honorees on Saturday, April 13, 2019, at 8:00 am at Emerson Alumni Hall on the University of Florida campus.

Bayardo represents employers and management in all areas of labor and employment law. He regularly handles high-stakes cases covering sensitive subject matters including employment discrimination, harassment, retaliation, whistleblower lawsuits, wage and hour compliance, and non-competition agreements. He also counsels employers on day-to-day human resources issues. Bayardo earned his J.D., cum laude, from the University of Florida Levin College of Law.

Bayardo moved to the U.S. from Nicaragua at the age of 8, and remains deeply committed to the Latin community. Through the Cuban American Bar Association's Pro Bono Immigrant Minors Project, Bayardo represents unaccompanied immigrant children who have fled poverty and violence in Central America, obtaining U.S. permanent status visas for them. He also serves as a guardian ad litem and volunteers at a legal clinic where he advises low-income individuals on landlord/tenant, immigration, and employment issues, and at a domestic violence center where he provides legal advice on employment rights to victims of domestic or sexual violence.
