LAW FIRM OF STEARNS WEAVER MILLER OPENS NEW TALLAHASSEE OFFICE

Miami, FL (April 7, 2009) – The law firm of Stearns Weaver Miller Weissler Alhadeff & Sitterson, P.A. announced that the firm recently opened a new office to service clients in the Tallahassee area.

The office, which is centrally located in the Highpoint Center office building on East College Avenue, will service the firm's existing client base as well as new clients. The attorneys practicing in the new office will focus primarily on regulatory and general commercial law.

Shareholder Richard Blinderman, who recently relocated to Tallahassee from Miami, is enthusiastic about the prospects for the new office. "We are thrilled to be in Tallahassee now. We will be able to more easily serve several of our long-time clients who either have operations based in Tallahassee or interests here."

Stearns Weaver Miller's Managing Director, Rick Schatz, said "We've been considering opening an office in Tallahassee for many years. This is the right time to open in Florida's capitol."

The Tallahassee office address and phone number is 106 East College Avenue, Suite 720, Tallahassee, FL 32301, 850-580-7200.
