Miami, FL – June 1, 2018 – Stearns Weaver Miller announced that Tallahassee Shareholder Gigi Rollini will be installed as a member of the National Association of Women Lawyers (NAWL) Board of Directors for a 3-year term at NAWL's Annual Meeting in New York City on July 19, 2018. NAWL provides leadership, a collective voice, and essential resources to advance women in the legal profession and advocates for the equality of women under the law.

Gigi has served as the Florida Association for Women Lawyers' (FAWL) delegate to NAWL since 2011. She serves on NAWL's Amicus, Membership, Sustaining Sponsor, and Path to Equity Partnership Committees, and Co-Chaired the highly successful 2018 NAWL Midyear Meeting in Miami, Florida, earlier this year.

In addition to her Board installation, Gigi will be honored with NAWL's Virginia S. Mueller Outstanding Member Award at NAWL's Annual Meeting. The award is named for the Sacramento lawyer who worked tirelessly to advance the position of women in the legal profession.

"For many years Gigi has gone above and beyond for NAWL, taking leadership roles on numerous program planning committees (including the wildly successful South Beach Mid-Year Meeting), operational committees, and advocacy committees," said NAWL President Angela Beranek Brandt. "Every time she raises her hand, we know that it will be a job well done. Gigi's constant focus on how to make NAWL better has done just that – made NAWL better."

Gigi Rollini, an experienced litigator, is a Shareholder in Stearns Weaver Miller's Tallahassee, Florida office. Her practice encompasses administrative and civil litigation, appellate law, and all aspects of Florida administrative law, including regulatory compliance, licensing and discipline matters, insurance, health law, government contracts and bid protests, state and local taxation, election and political law, non-profit compliance, telecommunications, and energy law.
