

Gisela M. Munoz Confirmed as a Fellow of the American College of Real Estate Lawyers

MIAMI, FL — October 17, 2016 — Stearns Weaver Miller announced that shareholder Gisela M. Munoz was confirmed as a Fellow of the American College of Real Estate Lawyers (ACREL) at its annual meeting in New York earlier this month.

Founded in 1978, ACREL has become the nation's most prestigious honorary organization for practicing real estate lawyers. Admission is by invitation only after a meticulous review process. Its membership comprises lawyers from all U.S. states, the District of Columbia, and the U.S. Virgin Islands. Gisela, one of only 50 ACREL Fellows in Florida, has been invited to speak on a panel about real property title issues at ACREL's Spring 2017 meeting.

Gisela is also a Fellow of the American College of Mortgage Attorneys (ACMA). She organized, moderated and was a panelist on a presentation entitled, "Mindfulness: Tapping into its Power to Achieve Professional and Personal Success and Wellness," at ACMA's 43rd Annual Meeting in California last month. She recently accepted an invitation to Vice-Chair ACMA's Capital Markets Committee and to take a lead role in ACMA's ethics programming.

Gisela practices in the areas of commercial real estate and corporate transactions. She represents companies and financial institutions in commercial real estate (including hotel) acquisitions, dispositions, development, financing, and operations, and in the structuring, negotiation, and documentation of joint ventures.

Gisela has been recognized by Florida Super Lawyers and is AV rated by Martindale Hubbell. She was named Commercial Real Estate Women (CREW)-Miami's Outstanding Mover and Shaker of the Year 2015 for her significant impact on South Florida's real estate industry and contributions to the South Florida community.
