

Giselle Gutierrez Joins Cuban American Bar Association (CABA) Board of Directors

MIAMI, FL — February 17, 2016 — Stearns Weaver Miller announced that Giselle Gutierrez, an associate in its Miami office, has become a member of the Cuban American Bar Association's 2016 Board of Directors.

As a CABA Board member, Giselle will help to further the organization's mission of promoting diversity and equality in the legal profession throughout Florida. She will serve as Co-Chair of CABA's Judicial Committee, Vice-Chair of its Young Lawyers Committee, Chair of its annual fundraising event to support its Pro Bono Project, and as a member of other Board committees.

Giselle practices in the Firm's Labor & Employment and Litigation Departments. She has defended employers against claims by their employees, and has handled cases involving contract disputes, business torts, professional malpractice defense, and the False Claims Act. She is currently helping, pro bono, child victims of crimes in Latin America to obtain U.S. visas.

Giselle clerked for The Honorable Paul C. Huck, United States District Court Judge for the Southern District of Florida. She graduated magna cum laude from the University of Florida Levin College of Law.
