

Glenn Burhans Discusses Historic Florida Supreme Court Congressional Map Decision on CBS Program The Usual Suspects

TALLAHASSEE, FL — July 20, 2015 — Stearns Weaver Miller Weissler Alhadeff & Sitterson, P.A. Litigation Shareholder Glenn Burhans appeared on the North Florida political talk show The Usual Suspects last weekend to discuss the recent Florida Supreme Court decision invalidating Florida's congressional map.

The historic 5-2 decision orders a new map to be produced within 100 days, ruling the Legislature unconstitutionally favored the Republican Party and incumbent House members in redrawing the map and violating the Fair Districts Amendment passed by voters in 2010. The decision tasks the Legislature with redrawing 8 of the state's 27 districts in time for the 2016 election.

"This is a monumental decision that will impact the composition of our congressional delegation and make for a frenetic and entertaining election cycle," said Burhans. "The reality is, upwards of 20 or more districts will likely be impacted."
