

Jennifer Saltz Bullock Installed As President of Federal Bar Association, Broward County Chapter

FT LAUDERDALE, FL — September 26, 2016 — Stearns Weaver Miller announced that Labor & Employment shareholder Jennifer Saltz Bullock was installed as President of the Federal Bar Association, Broward County Chapter.

As President, Jennifer will guide the Association in its mission to strengthen the federal court system by helping to serve the interests of public and private practitioners, the federal judiciary and the public. Jennifer joined the Chapter's Board of Directors in 2010 and has served as an Officer for the past four years.

Jennifer is an employment law attorney who represents state and national employers in employment litigation and administrative proceedings. She is a frequent author, blogger and speaker on emerging topics in labor and employment law. Jennifer was named among Benchmark Litigation's 2016 Under 40 Hot List, CFF's 40 Under 40 Outstanding Lawyers of South Florida, and Florida Super Lawyers' Rising Stars. She is on the Board of Women in Distress of Broward County, a non-profit organization committed to ending domestic violence.

Litigation shareholder Farah Rajani Bridges was also installed as a member of the Broward Federal Bar Association's Board of Directors. Farah's practice focuses on complex litigation matters at the trial and appellate levels in both federal and state courts. Her practice includes representing hospitals in cases asserting commercial and professional liability, representing lawyers in disciplinary proceedings, and litigating product liability, creditor-debtor, and landlord-tenant cases. Farah is a member of the Children's Diagnostic and Treatment Center's Transformers Committee, which promotes the optimal health and well-being of children with special health care needs.
