

Kelly O'Keefe Appointed to Capital City Bank Community Board

MIAMI, FL — May 15, 2018 — Stearns Weaver Miller announced that Tallahassee Shareholder Kelly A. O'Keefe has been appointed to the Capital City Bank Community Board of Directors for a three year term. In this role, Kelly will be an ambassador for Capital City Bank as well as a liaison to the Tallahassee business community.

"I'm committed to making Tallahassee a place where business, culture and our shared sense of community all thrive," says O'Keefe. "I am excited to partner with Capital City Bank to make a difference in our community."

Kelly represents businesses, fiduciaries, and individuals in trust and estate litigation, real estate litigation and complex business litigation. She has managed cases in multiple parallel forums, including arbitration, and handled litigated disputes successfully through appeal. Kelly also represents businesses before government agencies and advises candidates regarding campaign laws. Kelly's experience spans state, federal and local governmental bodies. Kelly has been consistently recognized by legal publications including Best Lawyers in America, Florida Super Lawyers, and Florida Trend's Florida Legal Elite.

Kelly is also a member of The Florida Bar Florida Probate Rules Committee, a Grow Business Committee Member of the Greater Tallahassee Chamber of Commerce, a Women United Steering Committee Member and a member of the Tallahassee Regional Estate Planning Council.
