LISA BERG RECEIVES JEWISH FEDERATION YOUNG LEADERSHIP AWARD

Miami, FL (March 23, 2009) – The law firm of Stearns Weaver Miller Weissler Alhadeff & Sitterson, P.A. announced that Lisa K. Berg, a Shareholder in the Labor and Employment Department, has been selected to receive the Greater Miami Jewish Federation 2009 Stanley C. Myers Young Leadership Award. This award is given annually to individuals who make the greatest contribution in time, effort, and accomplishments to the Miami Jewish Community. The award ceremony will be held at the Federation Annual Meeting on May 20, 2009.

Ms. Berg provides advice and training to employers of all sizes to minimize risk of employment litigation and to ensure compliance with evolving federal and state employment laws. Ms. Berg also has considerable expertise in all areas of traditional labor law, including union avoidance, responding to organizational campaigns, NLRB administrative proceedings, collective bargaining, and arbitration. She exclusively represents management in labor and employment matters, and has experience in a diverse group of industries, including healthcare, pharmaceutical, airline, manufacturing, automobile, legal, housing, construction, arts, professional sports, banking, real estate, financial, hospitality, and retail. She is Board Certified by the Florida Bar in labor and employment law and AV Rated by Martindale-Hubbell. Ms. Berg earned her J.D. from Emory Law School and her B.S. from Cornell University.

Stearns Weaver Miller is a full service law firm with 120 attorneys practicing in Miami, Fort Lauderdale, Tampa, and Tallahassee.
