FOUR STEARNS WEAVER MILLER ATTORNEYS APPOINTED TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS

MIAMI — October 6, 2011 — The law firm of Stearns Weaver Miller is pleased to announce the addition of four attorneys to the Board of Directors. The attorneys are Gerald E. Greenberg (Litigation), Alice R. Huneycutt (Litigation), George A. Pincus (Real Estate), and Andrew L. Rodman (Labor and Employment).

Gerald E. Greenberg is a Shareholder in the Litigation Department in the Firm's Miami office. Mr. Greenberg represents plaintiffs and defendants in a wide variety of federal and state court cases. He also works extensively as trial counsel in the Firm's Labor and Employment department. In addition, Mr. Greenberg regularly represents corporate and individual clients in connection with internal investigations, responses to federal and state law enforcement subpoenas and appearances as witnesses in criminal proceedings. He earned his J.D. from Yale Law School, his M.A. from the University of Pennsylvania, and his B.A. from the University of Pennsylvania.

Alice R. Huneycutt is a Shareholder in the Litigation Department in the Firm's Tampa office. Ms. Huneycutt handles complex civil litigation in state and federal courts. She has 28 years of experience representing major financial institutions in foreclosures, receiverships, guarantor collection and defensive (lender liability) litigation. Ms. Huneycutt has lectured frequently on a variety of topics affecting loan workouts, foreclosures, receiverships and lender liability. She earned her J.D. from the University of Miami School of Law and her B.A. from Duke University.

George A. Pincus is a Shareholder in the Real Estate Department. His practice focuses on office, industrial, retail and build-to-suit leasing, real estate finance and loan work-outs, acquisition and sale transactions, distressed debt purchases and real estate private equity matters, including the formation of real estate investment funds and negotiation of joint venture agreements. He earned his J.D. from the University of Miami School of Law and his B.A. from Bowdoin College.

Andrew L. Rodman is a Shareholder in the Labor and Employment Law Department in the Firm's Miami office. He represents and advises clients on a broad range of labor and employment related matters under state and federal law. In particular, Mr. Rodman's practice focuses on employment law discrimination and harassment, whistleblower and retaliation litigation, overtime and wage and hour litigation, non-compete and trade secret litigation, and employment law counseling on issues such as hiring, discipline, reduction in force and termination, leave and time-off issues, accommodation issues, and drafting of employee handbooks and employment contracts. He earned his J.D. from the Boston University School of Law and his B.A. from Brandeis University.
