

Javier E. Fernández Joins TransitAlliance Miami Board of Directors

MIAMI, FL — August 24, 2016 — Stearns Weaver Miller announced that Land Development, Zoning & Environmental shareholder Javier E. Fernández has joined the TransitAlliance Miami Board of Directors.

TransitAlliance Miami is a non-profit organization that collaborates with government agencies, the corporate sector, and community members to facilitate innovation for improved public transportation. As a member of the Board, Javier will assist the organization in its mission of accelerating improvements in the ways in which we all get around in an increasingly congested Miami.

Javier's practice focuses on transit-oriented, urban infill projects which often utilize government incentives, such as tax increment financing. He also assists developers with comprehensive plan and rezoning amendments, subdivision platting, and related building and environmental permitting issues.
