STEARNS WEAVER MILLER PROMOTES THREE ATTORNEYS TO SHAREHOLDER

MIAMI — September 28, 2011 — The law firm of Stearns Weaver Miller is pleased to announce the promotion of three attorneys from Associates to Shareholders. The newly promoted attorneys are Alex M. Arrieta (Corporate), Jennifer L. Saltz (Labor and Employment), and Eric Solomon (Corporate).

Alex M. Arrieta joined the firm in 2010. His practice focuses on domestic and international business transactions, including mergers and acquisitions, financings, joint ventures, capital market transactions, restructurings and general corporate and commercial advisory matters. He earned his J.D. from the University of Chicago Law School, his M.A.cc from the University of Florida, and his B.A. from the University of Florida.

Jennifer L. Saltz joined the firm in 2006. Ms. Saltz represents state and national employers at the trial and appellate levels in labor and employment litigation, including claims for discrimination, harassment, retaliation, failure to accommodate, family and medical leave, whistleblower, workers compensation retaliation, and wage and hour. She also represents employers in investigations of employee charges and complaints by administrative agencies. Ms. Saltz counsels employers on issues such as internal investigations, discipline, performance evaluations, hiring and termination procedures. She earned her J.D. from the University of Pennsylvania Law School and her B.S. from the University of Florida.

Eric Solomon joined the firm in 2006. His practice focuses on public company reporting under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the Securities Act of 1933, private placement and other capital raising transactions, and mergers and acquisitions. Mr. Solomon also represents companies with respect to corporate governance issues and other general corporate matters, including drafting and advising clients with respect to a broad range of commercial contracts such as subscription agreements, employment agreements, distribution agreements, confidentiality agreements, partnership agreements, operating agreements and escrow agreements. He earned his J.D. from the University of Texas Law School and his B.A. from John Hopkins university.
