

Sabrina Weiss Robinson Joins Stearns Weaver Miller to Lead Ad Valorem Tax Group

MIAMI, FL – May 15, 2018 - Stearns Weaver Miller announced that Sabrina Weiss Robinson has joined the Firm as a Shareholder in the Firm's Miami Office. Sabrina will head the Firm's Ad Valorem Tax Group.

"Property Tax is one of the most costly expenditures in real estate," said Rick Schatz, the Firm's Managing Director. "Sabrina has nearly 30 years of commercial litigation experience, 15 of which were focused exclusively on challenging property tax assessments. In the last year alone, Sabrina has appealed over 1,000 property valuations. Her experience is invaluable and we are excited to have her lead our team and advocate on behalf of current and future clients."

Sabrina helps owners, tenants, managers, lenders and developers throughout Florida reduce their tax liability through administrative appeals before Value Adjustment Boards and in Circuit Court. She has extensive experience in valuation appeals for various types of property, including retail centers, big box retailers, hotels, anchor department stores, office properties, industrial, apartments, assisted/independent living facilities, vacant land and tangible personal property.

In addition to valuation appeals, Sabrina specializes in property tax legal hearings focusing on the issue of substantial completion. She also has extensive experience in general commercial litigation.

"I am looking forward to helping clients manage costs by leveraging the strong resources and knowledge from Stearns Weaver Miller's Real Estate, Hospitality, Litigation, Land Development, and Tax teams. The synergies between my current practice and the Firm will further enhance our abilities to offer full-service legal representation to property owners statewide."
