

Stearns Weaver Miller Expands Tampa Footprint

TAMPA, FL – April 2, 2018 - Stearns Weaver Miller announced that its Tampa office has expanded its presence in the SunTrust Financial Centre, where it has been for nearly 25 years.

“After evaluating buildings, we decided that expanding and upgrading our current space was the best long-term move for our firm,” said Managing Director Rick Schatz. “The design and technology of our new space will meet our needs for years to come.”

The Firm’s footprint in Tampa has been growing steadily over the last several years, with the addition of Vin Marchetti, Jacob T. Cremer and Claire Bailey Carraway in 2015, Christian O’Ryan, Carol L. Myers and Aubrey Burris in 2016, and Jeffrey A. Collier, Janet Goldberg McEnery and Andrew W. McLaughlin in 2017. Moving from the 22nd to the 21st floor provides the expanding team a larger floorplan (an additional 9,000 square feet) that includes new offices and four conference rooms that will facilitate client meetings and events. The new space also includes physical and technological improvements.

“This is an exciting time for the Tampa office and the Firm,” said Schatz. “With the expansion of our team, our space, and our resources, we are better able to serve Central Florida. We anticipate continued growth and more opportunities to provide first-rate legal services and added value to our current and future clients in the region. We are especially excited about bringing our Labor & Employment Law seminar to Tampa.”

Stearns Weaver Miller’s Annual Labor & Employment Law Seminar, which will be celebrating its 28th anniversary this year in Miami, draws hundreds of human resource professionals, in-house counsel and senior executives from South Florida’s top businesses.
