

Patricia A. Redmond Inducted as Fellow of the American College of Commercial Finance Lawyers

MIAMI, FL — April 16, 2018— Stearns Weaver Miller announced that Business Restructuring Shareholder Patricia A. (“Trish”) Redmond has been inducted as a Fellow of the American College of Commercial Finance Lawyers.

The American College of Commercial Finance Lawyers is a prestigious professional organization dedicated to promoting the field of commercial finance law through education, legislative reform and the recognition of distinguished practitioners, jurists and academics.

With 300 Fellows nation-wide, the organization honors practitioners and scholars who have achieved preeminence in the field of commercial finance law and who have made substantial contributions to the promotion of learning and scholarship in commercial finance law through teaching, lecturing, published writings or continuing legal education.

Trish’s practice focuses on insolvency and business restructuring. She has extensive experience representing creditors’ committees, secured creditors and debtors in Chapter 11 cases. Trish is recognized by Chambers USA, Best Lawyers in America, and Florida Super Lawyers and was selected as the 2017 recipient of the American Bar Association Business Law Section’s Jean Allard Glass Cutter Award. Trish is a frequent presenter, both locally and nationally, on topics related to bankruptcy law. She is also a past President of the American Bankruptcy Institute and past Chair of the ABA’s Business Bankruptcy Committee.
