

Rene F. Ruiz Named Among 40 Under 40 Outstanding Lawyers of Miami-Dade County By Cystic Fibrosis Foundation

MIAMI, FL — November 10, 2014 — Stearns Weaver Miller Weissler Alhadeff & Sitterson, P.A. announced that Labor & Employment Shareholder Rene F. Ruiz was named among the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation's 40 Under 40 Outstanding Lawyers of Miami-Dade County 2014.

The honorees, who were selected for their dedication to their profession, work ethic, outstanding leadership, charity work, and positive impact on the community, were honored at an awards presentation on November 8, 2014 at the JW Marriott Miami.

A labor and employment attorney and a skilled negotiator, Rene helps public and private sector employers to formulate winning strategies for achieving their labor relations and business goals. He has helped clients successfully navigate through the myriad of issues involved in collective bargaining, administering union grievances, handling arbitrations, defending unfair labor disputes before the National Labor Relations Board and the Public Employees Relations Committee, managing union certifications and elections.

As Co-Founder and Chairman of Sports Leadership and Management (SLAM) Charter School in Little Havana, Rene is helping to give underprivileged students the opportunity to pursue sports-related careers.
