

Land Development, Zoning & Environmental Shareholder Jeffrey A. Collier Joins Tampa Office

TAMPA, FLORIDA — March 20, 2017 — Stearns Weaver Miller Land Development, Zoning & Environmental Shareholder Jeffrey A. Collier has joined the firm's Tampa office.

Following a successful stint at the firm's Tallahassee office, Jeff will bring his expertise to the Tampa Bay Area. Jeff has 17 years of experience serving private and public sector clients throughout Florida in the areas of environmental, land development and administrative law. He advocates clients' interests before federal, state and local governments, representing clients in a broad range of matters involving transactions, permitting, regulatory compliance, and litigation.

Prior to joining Stearns Weaver Miller in 2015, Jeff served as the Environmental Practice Group Leader of the South Florida Water Management District's Office of Counsel and senior attorney with the Florida Department of Environmental Protection. "Jeff's relocation marks a strategic step for the Firm's Land Development, Zoning & Environmental Group, reinforcing the team's solid presence in Tampa," said Managing Director Rick Schatz. "In the past two years, we have added five new lawyers to the group in Tampa – Vin Marchetti, Jacob Cremer, Claire Carraway, Christian O'Ryan and Brandon Rosser. We are delighted that Jeff will now add his talents to principal practice areas that our Tampa office offers."

"I look forward to serving our current and future clients from my new location and continuing to strengthen the group's capabilities in the Tampa market," said Collier.
