

RECENT STATE OF FLORIDA GOVERNMENT ACTIONS

Delayed Elections Rescheduled | Executive Order 20-124 | After a request from the Pasco County Supervisor of Elections and with consult from the Florida Secretary of State, Governor DeSantis scheduled the municipal elections for Dade City and San Antonio for June 30, 2020. The delayed election for the City of Zephyrhills has been canceled, but that action is not related to COVID-19. In the time since the original COVID-19 delay began, a candidate in that election has been disqualified. That there is no longer a pending contest there.
