

Erin Tilton Earns 36 Under Thirty-Six Professionalism Award by The Florida Bar Young Lawyers Division

Tallahassee, FL – February 15, 2024 – Stearns Weaver Miller announced that Land Development, Zoning & Environmental Shareholder Erin Tilton has been selected as a 36 Under Thirty-Six Professionalism Award recipient by The Florida Bar Young Lawyers Division (“YLD”). The inaugural award is presented to “young lawyers who display the highest standards of professionalism and ethics, whose character and integrity remain unwavering even in the most trying times, and whose dedication to raising the bar in the legal field is unmatched.” Erin will be recognized during YLD’s Affiliate Outreach Conference on February 17, 2024.

An experienced litigator, Erin represents private and public sector clients before local, regional, and state agencies, courts, and elected bodies on environmental, real estate development, and land use matters. She is skilled in developing and implementing litigation strategy as it relates to obtaining, challenging, and defending development approvals. Erin has consistently been recognized as a Rising Star in Florida Super Lawyers since 2017 and on the Ones to Watch list for The Best Lawyers in America since 2021. In 2023, she was recognized as a member of the National Association of Women Lawyers Rising List.

Erin is committed to serving the local Tallahassee community. She currently serves on the Board of Directors for the Greater Tallahassee Chamber of Commerce and as Immediate Past-President of the Tallahassee Bar Association (“TBA”). Erin is the ninth woman to take on the role of TBA President in the organization’s more than 100-year history and holds the record of being the youngest TBA President. She was honored at TBA’s Past Presidents’ Reception and Awards Dinner on February 8, 2024.

Erin also serves on the Urban Land Institute of North Florida’s Capital Region Leadership Council and the Stetson Lawyers Alumni Association Advisory Council. She is an active member of The Florida Bar’s Real Property, Probate & Trust Law Section, where she serves on the Section’s Development and Land Use Planning Committee.
