

Former Miami-Dade County Assistant County Attorney Ezra S. Greenberg Joins Stearns Weaver Miller in Miami

MIAMI, FL – August 29, 2022 – Stearns Weaver Miller announced that Ezra S. Greenberg has joined the Firm's Miami office as a Shareholder in the Litigation Department. Ezra is a skilled litigator with a dynamic practice across multiple disciplines. He has tried cases to verdict before juries in both state and federal court and is experienced in all aspects of civil litigation. He is also an accomplished appellate practitioner, having litigated numerous appeals and presented oral argument before state and federal appellate courts.

Prior to joining the Firm, Ezra served for more than a decade as an Assistant County Attorney at the Miami-Dade County Attorney's Office. In this role, he defended numerous high exposure lawsuits, including police shooting, wrongful death, qui tam, and class action claims. As a member of the both the federal litigation and labor and employment sections, he defended lawsuits arising out of alleged violations of federal rights by County officials and litigated disputes with employees and unions of Miami-Dade County and the Public Health Trust of Miami-Dade County. He also served as counsel to the Miami-Dade County Commission on Human Rights and advised various County departments and agencies on labor and employment, civil rights, and intellectual property matters.

Ezra began his career as a litigation associate at a national law firm in New York City. He then clerked for two federal judges on the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida.

Ezra graduated magna cum laude from Cardozo School of Law where he was an Articles Editor on the Cardozo Law Review and was awarded the Andrew S. Zucker Award for academic excellence, commitment to the law school's future success, community activism and dedication to the legal profession. The award was endowed in memory of Andrew Steven Zucker, Cardozo Class of 1999, a victim of the September 11th World Trade Center terrorist attack and is bestowed by the law school faculty on one graduate each year.
