

Giselle Gutierrez Awarded 2022 Most Productive Young Lawyers Division Board Member Award by The Young Lawyers Division of the Florida Bar

MIAMI, FL — June 30, 2022 — Stearns Weaver Miller announced that Shareholder Giselle Gutierrez has been awarded the Most Productive Young Lawyers Division Board Member Award by The Young Lawyers Division (“YLD”) of the Florida Bar for her dedication and involvement in community and law-related activities. The honor was presented to Giselle at the 2022 Annual Convention of the Florida Bar.

The YLD coordinates activities for its more than 26,000 members and serves as a medium for fostering discussion and free interchange of ideas regarding the duties, responsibilities and problems of its members. Giselle currently serves as the YLD Board of Governors Advocacy Chair, and has served on numerous committees since 2018, including the Access to Justice Committee, Affiliate Outreach Conference Committee, CLE and Sponsorship Committee, Long Range Planning Committee, and Practicing with Professionalism Committee.

In addition to her dedication to the YLD, Giselle is an active member in various community and professional organizations. She has served on the Board of Directors for the Cuban American Bar Association (“CABA”) since 2016, and currently serves as President-Elect. She is also involved with the CABA Pro Bono Project, which provides free legal services to those who cannot otherwise afford it – regardless of race, creed, color, gender, sexual orientation or national origin.

Giselle is a Shareholder in the Labor & Employment and Litigation Departments. She counsels clients in all aspects of employment, including disability and leave management, employee and management training, employment contracts, discrimination and retaliation litigation, executive compensation, restrictive covenants, handbook policy development and audits, risk management, compliance and investigations, wage and hour audits and litigation defense, whistleblower litigation defense, workers' compensation retaliation litigation, workforce restructuring and reductions in force and representation before administrative agencies including the EEOC and NLRB. Giselle is a skilled litigator and is also experienced with matters relating to constitutional law, securities and shareholder derivative actions and other civil and commercial litigation cases.

Giselle is recognized as a Top Up & Comer by the South Florida Legal Guide and as a Florida Super Lawyers Rising Star. In 2022, she was listed as “One to Watch,” by The Best Lawyers in America. In addition, she frequently conducts seminars and trainings for clients and professional organizations on labor & employment laws.
