

Giselle Gutierrez Re-Elected to Cuban American Bar Association (CABA) Board of Directors

MIAMI, FL — February 23, 2017 — Stearns Weaver Miller Labor & Employment attorney Giselle Gutierrez has been re-elected and inducted to the Cuban American Bar Association's 2017 Board of Directors.

As a member of CABA's Board of Directors since February 2016, Giselle helps to further the organization's mission of promoting diversity and equality in the legal profession throughout Florida. During her current term, she will represent and advance CABA's interests on U.S.-Cuba relations issues.

Giselle is Chair of "CABA Night with the Marlins," the annual fundraising event to support CABA's Pro Bono Project, and Co-Chairs the Events Committee. She has also served as Chair of the Young Lawyers Committee, Co-Chair of the Judiciary Committee, Vice-Chair of the Membership Committee, and she is a member of other CABA committees.

Giselle practices in the Firm's Labor & Employment and Litigation Departments. She defends employers against claims by their employees, and has also handled cases involving contract disputes, business torts, False Claims Act claims, and professional malpractice defense. On a pro bono basis, Giselle is helping children who were victims of crimes in Latin America to obtain U.S. visas.

Giselle clerked for The Honorable Paul C. Huck, United States District Court Judge for the Southern District of Florida. She graduated magna cum laude from the University of Florida Levin College of Law.
