

Jacob T. Cremer Elected to Hillsborough County Farm Bureau Board of Directors

TAMPA, FL — October 19, 2015 — Stearns Weaver Miller Weissler Alhadeff & Sitterson, P.A. attorney Jacob Cremer was elected to the Board of Directors of the Hillsborough County Farm Bureau. Farm Bureau serves as the grassroots voice of agriculture to support farm, ranch, and agricultural production before local, state, and federal government.

An attorney in the firm's Land Development, Zoning & Environmental Group, Jake counsels clients in their interactions with local, state, and federal governments. Jake focuses his practice on environmental and land use permitting and litigation, property rights litigation, and governmental affairs. He develops strategies to protect landowner's property and civil rights, and has assisted in the defense of property rights several times before the Supreme Court of the United States. With a background in agriculture, forestry, and comprehensive planning, Jake also works with large landowners on the long-term strategic planning of their holdings. He has experience helping those landowners conserve properties in working agriculture, obtain environmental permits to intensify their uses of their property, develop alternative income streams through environmental and ecosystems services payments, and decide when conversion to development may be appropriate.

Stearns Weaver Miller's statewide Land Development, Zoning & Environmental Group represents clients throughout Florida from the Panhandle to the Keys, navigating their interests in a complex regulatory world. The team implements strategic solutions to create value, avoid risk, and achieve clients' objectives.
