

Kelly A. O'Keefe Elected Treasurer of Tallahassee Regional Estate Planning Council

TALLAHASSEE, FL — July 15, 2019 — Stearns Weaver Miller announced that Litigation Shareholder Kelly A. O'Keefe has been elected as Treasurer of the Tallahassee Regional Estate Planning Council (TREPC), an organization of which she has been a member since 2014.

Comprised of attorneys, certified public accountants, life underwriters, financial planners, and trust officers, the TREPC promotes the communal exchange of information and experiences concerning estate planning and other related areas. The Council keeps members up-to-date with laws and conditions affecting the estate planning field through ongoing meetings, networking, and educational opportunities.

Kelly represents businesses, fiduciaries, and individuals in trust and estate, real estate, election law, and complex business litigation matters. She also represents businesses before government agencies and advises candidates regarding campaign laws. Kelly's experience spans state, federal and local government forums. She has managed cases in multiple parallel forums, including arbitration, and brought cases successfully through appeal.

Kelly was recently recognized by the Tallahassee Democrat as one of the "25 Women You Need to Know". She is also consistently recognized by leading legal peer-review publications, The Best Lawyers in America®, Florida Super Lawyers, and Florida Trend's Florida Legal Elite.

Committed to bettering the local North Florida business community, Kelly also serves on the Capital City Bank Community Foundation Board, the Florida Probate Rules Committee of the Florida Bar, the Women United Steering Committee, and as a Board Member and Grow Business Committee Member of the Tallahassee Chamber of Commerce.
