

Marco T. Paredes, Jr. Inducted as Member of Tallahassee Memorial HealthCare Foundation Board of Trustees

TALLAHASSEE, FL — December 18, 2019 — Stearns Weaver Miller announced that Director of Government Affairs Marco T. Paredes, Jr. has been inducted as a member of the Tallahassee Memorial HealthCare (“TMH”) Foundation Board of Trustees for a three-year term.

The TMH Foundation is a non-for-profit corporation, whose Board of Trustees are comprised of leaders in the community. The Board handles policy and oversight, manages the Foundation’s assets and distributes funds to TMH, while using educational programs and research to promote involvement and population health in the community.

“I am excited to partner with the Foundation and utilize my background in healthcare to make a difference in our community,” says Paredes. “It is an honor help champion an organization that is transforming care and elevating healthcare standards in our region.”

As Director of Government Affairs, Marco helps clients formulate and execute strategies to achieve their desired policy goals by analyzing, regularly tracking the progress of, and advocating for and affecting state legislation and regulation impacting clients’ business interests and priorities. In the community, he also sits on the Board of Directors for Martyrs of La Florida Missions and serves as Board Treasurer of Circuit Two First Step, an organization that assists in the rehabilitation of persons placed on probation or released on supervision in the Second Judicial Circuit of Florida by providing funds for ancillary treatment and services.

Prior to joining the firm, Marco served as Associate Director for Health for an influential state advocacy organization; as Vice President of Regional Governmental Affairs for a Fortune 500 managed healthcare company; as Legislative Affairs Director for the Florida Department of Health; as Senior Manager of State Governmental Affairs for one of the world’s leading biotechnology companies; as Director of Public Policy and Government Relations for a major children’s hospital in Miami; and as Legislative Director for a Miami Dade County Commissioner.
