STEARNS WEAVER MILLER

For more information contact:
Juliann Ross
305-789-3301
jross@stearnsweaver.com

Patricia (Trish) Redmond Honored with
Miami Law's Center for Ethics & Public Service Hoeveler Award

Miami, FL – November 20, 2024 – Stearns Weaver Miller announced that Shareholder Patricia (Trish) Redmond was honored with the University of Miami School of Law's Center for Ethics & Public Service Hoeveler Award. The award was established in honor of the late Honorable William M. Hoeveler and is presented annually to a lawyer, organization, or community member who has demonstrated exemplary ethics and a deep commitment to public service. Trish was formally recognized at the 22nd annual William M. Hoeveler Luncheon and Award Presentation on November 19, 2024.

Trish has devoted countless hours throughout her career to providing pro bono legal services to thousands of underprivileged and low-income individuals, children and families. She founded the Bankruptcy Assistance Clinic at St. Thomas University College of Law and the University of Miami School of Law. Trish is the director of Miami Law's bankruptcy clinic, serves as an adjunct professor and coaches the bankruptcy moot court team. She also serves on the Board of Advisors for St. Thomas Law and frequently presents, both locally and nationally, on topics related to bankruptcy law. In addition, Trish serves as the director of all clinical programs that are funded by the local bankruptcy bar foundation in the Southern District of Florida; through the district, students are allowed to work on bankruptcy cases with the supervision of a lawyer. In recognition of her significant contributions to the community and the legal profession, she has received several prestigious accolades, including the ABA Business Law Section's Jean Allard Glass Cutter Award and The Florida Bar's Tobias Simon Bro Bono Service Award, the highest statewide pro bono award.

Trish has a long history of active involvement in numerous professional industry organizations. In 2024, she was elected President of the American College of Bankruptcy. She also served on the College's Board of Regents for the 11th Circuit, including as its Chair in 2022 as the first woman in the College's history to hold this position. In addition, Trish has served on the Board of Directors and held various leadership roles for the American Bankruptcy Institute (ABI), the American Bar Association (ABA), the Bankruptcy Bar Association for the Southern District of Florida (BBASDFL) and the Dade County Bar Association (DCBA).

Trish's practice focuses on Chapter 11 reorganizations, out-of-court restructuring, and bankruptcy litigation and appeals. She represents debtors and secured/unsecured creditors/committees in significant Florida insolvencies and related appeals. She specializes in cases requiring novel and creative solutions and strategies using bankruptcy options to reach beneficial outcomes. Trish is routinely recognized by peer and legal ranking publications including being ranked Band 1 in Chambers USA since 2010; Florida Trend's Legal Elite Notable Women Leaders in the Law in 2023; Florida Super Lawyers' "Top 100" from 2007-2022, "Top 50 Women" from 2006-2022 and "Top 100 Miami" from 2010-2022; and The Best Lawyers in America "Lawyer

For more information contact:
Juliann Ross
305-789-3301
jross@stearnsweaver.com

of the Year" for Bankruptcy Law in 2015 and 2018, as well as Bankruptcy Litigation in 2014, 2019 and 2025.

Contact Patricia "Trish" Ann Redmond:
Phone: 305-789-3553
Email: predmond@stearnsweaver.com
View Bio | Download v-card | Connect via LinkedIn

About Stearns Weaver Miller
Stearns Weaver Miller is a Florida-based law firm with more than 150 attorneys and offices in Miami, Coral Gables, Fort Lauderdale, Tampa and Tallahassee. For nearly 50 years, our multidisciplinary team of attorneys and professionals have worked collaboratively to help our clients understand and resolve complex legal issues and disputes. For more information, visit stearnsweaver.com.