

Shareholder Adrienne Love Achieves Florida Bar Board Certification in Intellectual Property Law

TALLAHASSEE, FL — August 7, 2024 — Stearns Weaver Miller announced that Shareholder Adrienne Love has achieved Board Certification by The Florida Bar in Intellectual Property Law. As of 2023, only five percent of eligible Florida Bar members (fewer than 5,000 lawyers) hold this distinction in one or more of 27 specialty areas. Notably, only 134 of those members are board-certified in Intellectual Property Law.

Board certification is The Florida Bar's highest level of evaluation of a lawyer's competence and experience in a particular area of practice. It identifies lawyers with special knowledge, skills, and proficiency in an area of practice, as well as character, ethics, and a reputation for professionalism. To achieve certification, a lawyer must show substantial involvement in the area of specialty, pass a comprehensive examination, satisfy more robust CLE requirements, and complete a rigorous peer review process.

Adrienne leads the firm's intellectual property group. She devotes her practice to patent, copyright, and trademark matters, including litigation of such intellectual property cases in federal courts throughout the United States. In over 18 years of practice, Adrienne has litigated trademark opposition and cancellation proceedings and appeals before the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, and patent appeals and proceedings in front of the Patent Board of Examiners. She also handles domain name dispute arbitration proceedings under the Uniform Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policy and matters arising under the Anticybersquatting Consumer Protection Act.
