

Stearns Weaver Miller Establishes Annual Nursing Scholarship at Tampa General Hospital

TAMPA, FL – February 19, 2021 – Stearns Weaver Miller announced that the Firm was successful in raising over $10,000 to establish a dedicated annual nursing scholarship at longtime client, Tampa General Hospital (“TGH”), in honor of Chris A. Roederer, Senior VP, Chief Human Resources Officer.

This scholarship will cover expenses for nurses working at TGH who are interested in earning a new or renewed certification in their medical specialty. Applications will be considered on an annual basis, with recipients required to complete the certification process within one year of their awarding date. Information about how nurses can apply for this new scholarship will be included in the Nurses Week Packet which, in 2021, begins on Thursday, May 6.

“We are delighted to be working with Tampa General to provide opportunities to those who may not otherwise have the chance to advance their education and experience,” said Tampa Shareholder Janet Goldberg McEnery. “The Firm wanted to provide Chris with a gift that would honor his legacy and will further support his work of helping employees grow and develop as professionals.”

“The scholarships will transform lives, not just for a brief moment in time, but for a lifetime,” Roederer added. “It is an honor to be part of this new, promising opportunity for our team members.”

Currently named after the Firm, the scholarship will eventually be renamed after Roederer, after retirement from the hospital.
