OVERVIEW

Ivette Delgado is an Associate in the Firm's Ad Valorem and Real Estate Departments. Ivette focuses her practice on real estate acquisitions and dispositions, commercial and residential development, commercial leasing, financing, and general corporate work. She has helped both residential and commercial property owners reduce their property tax liabilities. She is also experienced in complex business litigation, construction law, and asset collection.

Prior to joining the Firm, Ivette worked at a boutique law firm in Aventura focusing on property tax consulting services. During law school, she served as a judicial intern to the Honorable Marcia G. Cooke, for the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida.
