OVERVIEW

Mark is a Shareholder in the Litigation Department. He has served on the Firm's Board of Directors, as well as the Firm's Client Relations Committee and Business Intake Committee. Mark represents U.S. and international clients in trial and appellate courts, both state and federal, arbitrations and administrative forums. His practice focuses on complex commercial matters, which include contract and business tort claims that pertain to a wide range of disputes involving creditor's rights, secured transactions, lender liability, shareholders, partnerships and limited liability companies, real property, including claims related to lien priority, adverse possession, restrictive covenants, easement rights, property rights and land use, deficiency valuation proceedings, tax assessment challenges, and landlord/tenant relations.

Mark has been named one of South Florida's top litigators being selected as a Florida Litigation Star in Benchmark Litigation and recognized in The Best Lawyers in America and the South Florida Legal Guide. He has lectured at various Florida Bar Continuing Legal Education Seminars on topics, including contract remedies and other litigation related issues.

Prior to joining the Firm, Mark served as a Judicial Clerk for The Honorable Thomas E. Scott, United States District Court - Southern District of Florida, and as a Judicial Intern for both The Honorable C. Clyde Atkins, Senior Judge United States District Court - Southern District of Florida, and The Honorable Mario Goderich, Eleventh Circuit, Miami-Dade County, Florida.

REPRESENTATIVE EXPERIENCE
