Brian McDonough Joins Camillus House Board of Directors

MIAMI, FL — April 1, 2016 — Stearns Weaver Miller announced that Brian McDonough, a director and shareholder in the Firm, has joined the Board of Directors of Camillus House, a full-service center dedicated to ending homelessness in Miami.

As a member of the Camillus House Board, Brian will assist the organization in its mission to help its clients transition to self-sufficiency. Established in 1960, Camillus House has grown from a small overnight shelter into a comprehensive system of care for people who are chronically homeless.

Brian is a real estate lawyer and head of the Firm's Affordable Housing & Tax Credit Practice Group. He represents developers who use low income housing tax credits, tax-exempt bond financing, and other government loan programs implemented by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development to construct multifamily housing. Brian also represents lenders in all types of real estate loans, including loans related to affordable housing. He is recognized by publications including Chambers USA, The Best Lawyers in America, and Florida Super Lawyers.

Brian is the Founder and Executive Director of Give Kids A Chance, a charitable organization that provides scholarships to low income students. He has helped raise over $1 million, and in the past decade, Give Kids A Chance has awarded more than 320 scholarships.

Contact Brian McDonough | 305-789-3350 | bmcdonough@stearnsweaver.com

About Stearns Weaver Miller

Stearns Weaver Miller is a full service law firm with offices in Miami, Fort Lauderdale, Tampa and Tallahassee, Florida.

We offer multidisciplinary solutions with a concentration on Business Restructuring, Corporate & Securities, Labor & Employment, Land Development, Zoning & Environmental, Litigation & Dispute Resolution, Real Estate and Tax. For more information, visit stearnsweaver.com.

###